

The Carmen Ratti Band featuring Jill Dineen

Recently signed to MoMojo Records Label , the band continues to build on its growing reputation with a sound that blends soulful blues and heartfelt songwriting. Working with the label marks an exciting new chapter as they prepare to bring their music to a broader audience.

Winners of the 2023 Golden Gate Blues Society International Blues Challenge, the Carmen Ratti Band featuring Jill Dineen has quickly risen to the forefront of Northern California's blues scene. With a reputation for electrifying live performances, the band blends raw, soul-drenched vocals led by Jill Dineen, searing guitar work by Carmen Ratti, and an irresistible groove that captures audiences from the first note. Their high-energy sound fuses the spirit of traditional blues with a fresh, contemporary edge, earning them recognition on both local and regional stages.

Formed in 2018, the band was born from guitarist Carmen Ratti's vision to unite some of the Bay Area's finest musicians and create original music that is both authentic and distinct. That vision came to life with the release of their debut album, The Road Back (2021), recorded at the legendary Greaseland Studios under the guidance of acclaimed producer Kid Andersen. Recently, the band recorded a yet-to-be released second album of originals at Greaseland alongside some of the Bay Area's very best musicians.

The Carmen Ratti Band featuring Jill Dineen has built a devoted following through countless club, festival, and private event performances across Northern California.

Whether performing show-stopping originals or reimagined classics, The Carmen Ratti Band featuring Jill Dineen delivers passion, power, and authenticity every time they step on stage — music that moves the body and stirs the soul.
